FORECAST:

More Cable, Channels, Programs

And, we might add, more confusion. However, the picture looks brighter this week. TV moguls of Chicago and New York are taking a personal interest in your likes and dislikes, and you'll see the results of their snoopings for information before summer arrives.

You'll also hear about—

—More coaxial cable joining Chicago with New York and other eastern cities.

—The Federal Communications Commission's decision on whether to release the UHF (ultra high frequency) channels to video, to provide more stations for Chicago and other big cities.

—New programs, changes of time, dates being switched because of more cable. There will be a little confusion for a few weeks. Daily papers and Television Forecast will try to clear up the muddle.

Already some changes are being noted. WGN-TV, channel 9, will be receiving the Ford Theatre productions—a drama each month—formerly telecast by another Chicago station thru CBS facilities. Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town," previously heard 8 to 9 p.m. Sundays, now begins at 7 o'clock, effective March 27.

When the Bell Telephone company completes the additional cable from New York to Chicago, TV fans will be tied up in knots over what program to view, because real station competition will just begin. Right now, only one channel can provide a New York show, so if you prefer eastern productions you watch them knowing there won't be any other eastern shows on the screen. It will be a healthy situation to have more shows, better shows, and for those who want to watch all events, there is only one hope for relief: 4 TV sets in the parlor, and a good set of nerves.

Paul B. Mowrey, ABC TV director representing WENR-TV in Chicago has made it clear his network vetoes the use of hackneyed stage pieces, no matter how successful they had been before the footlights. Mowrey favors experimenting with short story classics, one-act masterpieces, such as Ring Lardner, Saroyan and James Thurber, so expect to see more entertainment of this type.

NBC has taken the lead in UHF experimenting by planning an ultra-high frequency station in Bridgeport, Conn. The station will act as a satellite of NBC's key station in New York, WNBT, and will be studied by FCC officials and TV set manufacturers with much interest. Most manufacturers have announced they are prepared to produce dual-band sets providing both UHF and VHW (very high frequency) so that televiewers may receive programs from all channels. Only Zenith Radio and Television Corporation was able to jump the gun months ago by designing and putting on the market a set which incorporates both bands.

Frank Schreiber, WGN-TV chief executive, recently expressed his feelings toward the motion picture industry and their attitude towards video. The "in-

Doggies to Face Two Sets of TV Cameras

Two nights of entertainment for dog lovers are scheduled by stations WBKB, channel 4 and WGN-TV, channel 9 who will cover the International Kennel club's all-breed dog show Saturday and Sunday, March 26 and 27.

Saturday, WBKB will take to the air at 7 p.m., with announcer Russ Davis, assisted by Howard McCullough, noted trainer and president of Chicago's park district dog training association. Channel 4 will offer a two hour coverage of the event.

Sunday night at 5 o'clock, WGN-TV with Jack Brickhouse announcing, will present Capt. Will Judy, publisher of

CAPT. WILL JUDY

"Dog World" magazine and editor of the Dog Encyclopedia as headline guest. Capt. Judy will join Dr. W. A. Young, managing director of the Anti Cruelty Society of Chicago, and Dorsey Connors, video reporter, in offering practical hints and training tips for dog owners. The WGN-TV telecast will be sponsored by Red Heart, produced by Herbert S. Laufman and directed by Don Cooke.

Televiewers will be able to see the breeds in water, field and obedience trials as they are rated by the club's judges.

For T.V. Service Consult the Directory Page 14.

ON THE COVER

Friday night, April 1, you'll see these three top comedians do anything for a laugh in Admiral's "Broadway Revue," telecast on WNBQ, channel 5 and WGN-TV, channel 9. Unless you're a new video set owner, they need no introduction. Imogene Coca, Sid Caesar and Mary McCarty keep you in tele-stitches for 60 minutes. In fact, you'll be aching the rest of the night.

That's O'Toole on TV

That's O'Toole, the story of a patient, easy-going husband and his wife, Debby, who can't say "No" has made its debut over WENR-TV channel 7, and is proving a popular show.

Tinker O'Toole, who can be seen Sunday, March 27, as the well-meaning husband whose greatest pursuit is the enjoyment of life, is portrayed by Arthur Peterson. Cast as his wife, also well-meaning but utterly powerless on the receiving end of a sales talk, is Norma Ransome. The role of Debby's sister is played by Pat Dunlap.

Meet Johnny Coons Man of Many Voices

By PATRICIA COOPER

A Chicago television star you haven't yet seen but whose voice is known to thousands and thousands of children of all ages is Johnny Coons, the man behind Uncle Mistletoe on WENR-TV's weekday show.

If you're a new TV set owner unaware of the adventures Uncle Mistletoe relates to Jennifer Holt—Aunt Judy—then dial channel 7 Monday night, March 28 and enter the land of fables. You'll hear Johnny in a number of roles, in fact you might recognize his voice as that of Smelly Clark, a radio character, he performed on Vic and Sade.

Johnny, like many TV stars, started his career in radio. Because he specializes in trick voices he was a natural selection for the Marshall Field & Co. show on video.

Studied in New York

A look through Johnny's scrapbook and we see he entered his professional career soon after graduating from high school. From Lebanon, Ind., his family had him enrolled in pre-medical school at Wabash college, but he never got there. Instead, he went to New York to study at the Alviene Dramatic academy, joined a vaudeville outfit as a magician, then began touring the midwest. Later he returned to Broadway to appear in "Bright Honor" after which he played with stock companies in Maine and Long Island.

An offer to appear as a Dead End Kid in the touring company of "Dead End" brought him to Los Angeles, where he stayed for several years doing movies for Columbia and Selznick. From movies, Johnny moved into radio and was soon doing dramatic stints on network shows originating in California.

Starred on Radio

Chicago offered him the chance to star in a number of juvenile roles, so he returned to the midwest. Since 1946 he has been portraying Clipper King in ABC's "Sky King." Avid radio fans will recall him in Bachelor's Children, and Captain Midnight.

JOHNNY COONS

Mr. and Mrs. Coons reside in an apartment on the near north side of Chicago. They're not nightclubbers, but prefer to do their entertaining at home, quietly. This also gives Johnny the chance to demonstrate some of the feats of legerdemain which he performed on the stage. Although he sold most of his equipment (valued at $5,000) he is still able to baffle and entertain friends without using rabbits, trick tables and false-bottom hats.

Someday we think Mr. Coons will have a show of his own on video, and when he does we're certain he'll add to the stature of video in Chicago.

Hornsby Signs for Cub Games

The old Rajah himself, Rogers Hornsby will be a TV sports announcer covering the Chicago Cubs home games for channel 7, it was announced this week by WENR-TV. One of baseball's immortals, Hornsby held the batting championship of the National league for seven years. There isn't a Cub fan alive who doesn't remember the old slugger.

Hornsby should be interesting on video. He'll make his bow at the start of the baseball season, April 19, competing with veteran TV announcers Jack Brickhouse and Joe Wilson.

For T.V. Service Consult the Directory Page 14.

Pennsylvania To Use Color TV in Study

Harold E. Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania, this week announced the school is planning to incorporate color television facilities in a projected $10,000,000 addition of the medical center. An order with Zenith Television, Chicago, was earlier placed for a color TV transmitter and receivers. They are to be used for visual study to groups of medical students.

Pres. Truman, Churchill to Appear on Telecast

President Harry Truman and Winston Churchill, Britain's war-time leader will appear together on television Thursday, March 28, in a pooled network coverage of the mid-century convocation of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

According to network officials, the Tuesday program will begin at 8 p.m. A second telecast is scheduled for Friday, April 1, beginning at 8 o'clock.

DOUG EDWARDS, CBS newscaster, is now concentrating most of his activities on television in a show that takes televiewers around the world, Mondays through Friday. See him this week on WGN-TV, channel 9, at 6:30 p.m.

BACKSTAGE AT FORD THEATER—You've seen Ford productions on your screen, now take a peek backstage. Four cameras, including a dolly-type; two pedestal and one tripod are in operation. Fluorescent light banks are overhead. Two boom mikes are visible telescoping into the set. Worker crouched in foreground is dolly pusher. Coaxial cable is seen snaking from several cameras. Ford theater, a CBS feature, will be seen on WGN-TV, channel 9, sometime in April, unless our crystal ball is out of order.

Maulers and Cuties Mix Well Thursdays

One of our readers told us of an incident which took place in his home last Thursday. During the WGN-TV wrestling matches he stepped away from his telereceiver and went into the kitchen for some refreshments.

When he came back, there was a parade of cuties on his screen. He was all ready to blame someone for switching stations when the parade became more interesting, and he realized a beauty contest was being staged.

Fawn Klauck

From what we've been able to gather, wrestling fans don't mind it in the least to watch a beauty contest during the intermission, especially when the winners are like Miss Fawn Klauck (inset) of 1954 Patterson, Chicago. Miss Klauck, a secretary at Kiwanis International office, became the first Miss Tavern Pale of the Week, and according to the sponsors, votes are still rolling in. Nearly 12,000 were mailed in the first seven days of the contest.

Thursday, March 31, on channel 9 you'll view another contest. The winner will again be selected by the tele-audience, and will receive a US government bond, matched costume jewelry, flowers, a photographic portrait, a special hair styling, dress, and a beauty course in a Chicago modeling school.

Technical Information

A reader this week inquired: "How many complete television pictures are transmitted to the receiver each second?" The answer: 30. Each picture contains approximately 200,000 dots of light or elements. Chicago TV station transmitters amplify the electrical charges created in TV cameras, sending out strong picture-signals, together with syne-signals to hold the picture in its frame, keeping its horizontal and vertical proportions correct and preventing waviness.

dustry has been hiding its head in the sands of Hollywood," he commented, "rather than cooperate with TV, the film people have trembled with a kind of adolescent fear."

Schreiber, like others, is looking for Hollywood to go all out for TV, if not today at least before 1949 ends. Each time a new TV set is sold Hollywood sits up and takes notice. And they should, at least that is our opinion.

Can't Get Away From Him

When Ernie Simon mentioned that he received a letter from a TV fan over 85 miles from Chicago, three other WBKB fans wrote telling the station they received Channel 4 (1) over 100 miles away, (2) 125 miles away, (3) 200 miles away. We wonder who is the longest distance Television Forecast reader?

Young Ballad Singer Wins TV Fans

A pint-sized 10-year old Chicago boy with a 10 gallon personality and mature showmanship is winning acclaim on WBKB's new show, "Lady of the Mountain." He is Tommy Sands who co-stars with Barbry Ellen Rogers.

Dial channel 4 Monday and Wednesday this week at 6:30 p.m. and you'll see this new twosome in a program of cowboy, mountain and Spanish songs.

TOMMY SANDS

During the day Tommy is a student at La Salle grammar school. When he isn't studying or singing, the young TV star likes to box and draw. Someday, he confesses, he would like to be a movie star—not like his favorite, Roy Rogers, but more like Burl Ives, wandering minstrel. You'll recall hearing him on "Melody Ranch" and "Louisiana Hayride," radio shows.

Songs heard on "Lady of the Mountain" are from Barbry Ellen's collection. For many years she has gathered folk songs, as well as historical items of the legendary west. Our reporter promises a story on Barbry next week.

19,000 Sets in Milwaukee

Milwaukee, Wis. reports more than 19,000 TV sets are now in operation, receiving WTMJ-TV, channel 3, it was announced this week. Only 8% of the video receivers are installed in public places, the rest in private homes.

Notes from Readers . . .

Sirs:

Readers are invited to write this magazine. Letters must contains name and address; name will be withheld on request. Address: Editor, Television Forecast, 185 North Wabash, Chicago 1.

We live ten miles south of Kalamazoo (see enclosed map) and we receive Chicago and Detroit, plus Milwaukee. We have a tower built on a windmill.

Kalamazoo, Mich. A. SMITH

Sirs:

I do not believe that the television industry is showing ingenuity in expanding their audience or their programming. For one thing, special efforts should be made to encourage installation of receivers in towns and cities beyond the ordinary service range. Special equipment, good receivers plus super antennae will do the job.

Chicago, Ill. TV CRITIC

Ed. Note: "TV Critic," who prefers to remain anonymous should take note of Mr. Smith's letter above. We think he is too critical of an industry which is still young and has plans to provide rural coverage.

Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, president of Eastern Airlines (right) autographs a copy of his book "Seven Came Through," to Tom Wagner, guest of Firestone's "Americana," TV quiz show emceed by Ben Grauer (center). An NBC show, "Americana" can be seen March 28 on WNBQ, channel 5.
